

A global leader in providing distinctive value through Integrated Equipment and Service Solutions to the restaurant and retail industry that enables our customers, partners, and employees to succeed. A key feature is our ability to deliver complete top quality and durable kitchen packages to new or existing restaurant sites anywhere in the world. We offer a “one-stop-shop” service, including our own fabricated products and a complete range of restaurant equipment, sourced from other well-known manufacturers.

Summary

The Senior Financial Analyst will report directly to and actively partner with the Director of Financial Planning & Analysis, the finance & accounting team, and other functional groups to perform sound and timely financial analyses to help extract valuable insights to drive strategic decision-making and profitable growth.

Scope Of Responsibilities

- Create financial models and perform analyses to support organizational decision making
- Develop annual financial budgets, regular forecasts, and period results reports
- Analyze industry and competitive trends and make recommendations based on those trends
- Develop automated reporting and forecasting tools for more efficient use of data
- Conduct variance analysis to demonstrate how the budget and forecast compares against actual performance
- Enable management to better communicate with external stakeholders
- Analyze past results, perform variance analysis, identify trends, and make recommendations for improvements
- Work closely with the accounting team to ensure accurate financial reporting
- Prepare ad-hoc reporting and analysis as needed and perform other duties as assigned

Requirements

- BS/BA in Accounting or Finance
- 4-6 years of Accounting or Finance experience
- Technical excellence in Excel-based financial modeling
- Demonstrated ability to prioritize multiple tasks appropriately through effective time management
- Delivery-focused and able to respond to business requests quickly
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Must be coachable and an adaptive learner
- Strong analytical skills and excellent problem-solving ability
- Excellent organizational & collaboration skills and mindfulness

- Must be initiative-taker and enjoy working with minimal supervision while being part of a team
- Ability to collaborate with different stakeholders
- Understanding of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) preferred
- High degree of honesty and integrity
- Strong work ethic
- Advanced computer skills, including Excel, PowerPoint, and Word; position requires a capable financial modeler experienced with financial analysis and preparing management reports